Films on Demand is an online video streaming subscription to curricular resources with copyright permissions for NLC educational use.

To access Films on Demand:

1. Films on Demand videos appear in the search results from the Library home page search.
2. To access Films on Demand directly: On the Library Guides Home Page, click on “Individual Databases”, then click on “Films and Videos”. Films on Demand can be found in the drop-down list.
3. Once you have created a Films on Demand account for yourself, you can access the resource at: digital.films.com

Instructors may create a personal account within the service, which allows you to:

- Create and share customized playlists
- Save your favorite videos for quick access
- Set your default preferences
- Access the film collection from digital.films.com website

To do this, click on “Create Account” in the upper right-hand screen. Follow prompts.

Once you have your own account, you may access Films on Demand directly with your login information. This allows full access to creating, sharing, saving, etc.

Faculty providing links to students please use the “Title URL” or “Segment URL” below the video. This creates a shareable link that will work on campus without login and off campus with a Library ID and PIN. (Do NOT copy the URL in your browser. This will not work when shared with students.)
